

ADDENDUM TO PURCHASE AGREEMENT

Code Ann. § 27- 50-30(2) or a deed in lieu thereof, Seller/owner is exempt from requirements regarding the making of certain disclosures, including without limitation disclosures under the South Carolina Residential Property Condition Disclosure Statements (see S.C. Code Ann. §§ 27-50-10, et. seq.). In the event the foregoing exemption is not applicable, Seller and Buyer hereby agree not to complete the South Carolina Residential Property Condition Disclosure Statements pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 27-50-30(13). As a result, any rights Buyer may have had in connection with such Disclosure Statement under South Carolina law shall not be available. Any such reports furnished by Seller or its agents in connection herewith shall be for informational purposes only, are not made part of the Agreement, and Seller makes no representations or warranties about their accuracy or completeness. Buyer acknowledges that in consideration of Seller's execution of the Agreement, Buyer, on behalf of itself and all other parties having any Claims, covenants that neither Buyer nor any such other party will sue, commence, prosecute or in any way participate in any judicial, administrative, or other regulatory proceedings for breach of contract based on any disclosures relating to any alleged breach or violation of any state law, rule or regulation by Seller, or any other party engaged on Seller's behalf, including, without limitation any real estate broker or agent representing Seller.

AGENCY DISCLOSURE. South Carolina law provides that a broker licensee may establish agency relationships as a seller's agent, a buyer's agent, a disclosed dual agent and must have a written company policy "that identifies and describes the types of real estate brokerage agency relationships in which associated licensees may engage." See S.C. Code Ann. § 40-57-137. S.C. Code § 40-57-139 (A) (1) and (2) requires real estate licensees to provide a buyer and seller the agency disclosure form "South Carolina Disclosure of Real Estate Brokerage Relationships" and a meaningful explanation of agency relationships offered by the licensee's company. This must be done at the first practical opportunity when buyer and/or seller and the licensee have substantive contact. However, the agency disclosure requirements of S.C. Code Ann. § 40-57-139 do not apply to transactions regarding the sale of property by auction, and therefore the brochure is being provided to Buyer and Seller as a convenience, not as a requirement.
